

Marc Butterworth

Director of Operations, Creative Technology

Marc is the Director of Operations at Creative Technology and has been a resident of Manor Royal for 23 years, providing him with good knowledge of the area and the challenges faced by business here.

He is passionate for finding new talent from the local area. He feels that having the BID and being able to use its capability to provide opportunity to local people is essential to ensuring the economic prosperity of the community.

www.ct-group.com

www.manorroyal.org