	Report Type: Crime
Commentary 09.07.2025 13:28:16 Locations London Road Type Crime Details About 12:00 am, whilst on car patrol, we came across X3 unknown IC1 individuals, who was acting in a suspicious manner. Whilst we were observing them, we received a call from the following business (M&S), reporting the theft of bottle's or alcohol. And the description that we received, had perfectly matched the individuals that were acting suspiciously. We then made our way towards where they were heading - (London Road). At this time it was only 2 individuals located, the other one seemed to disappear. So we stop the X2 individuals a male and a female, they were questioned about being inside M/S earlier. Which they admitted to, and also admitted to have taken bottles of alcohols. One of them did have a ruck sack, which was searched and a bottle of vodka was found. He then claimed that his mate has got the rest, earlier before the M&S store manager told us that they have attended the shop twice this morning, and did stole on both occasions. We then held on to the ruck sack, and demanded, that he goes and get the rest of stolen items from his mate. But the male insisted that we gave his bag back, but we did not. At this time Ranger 's 2 was on the phone to the police regarding the incident. The unknown male then runs off, so we took his bag as evidence for the police. He did claimed that he had money in his bag, but upon the police arrival his bag was search but no money was found inside. All that was taken from the unknown male was handed over to the attending officer's. Footage of this incident can be located, on the bodycam of both business Rangers, if needed in the future for further evidence. Crime no# - 658/09/07/25 SN - Attending Officer's EA 851 EB 853. Escalated Emergency (999)
